

This book addresses the questions that most believers tend to be very reluctant to confront :

IF ALLAH (God) CREATED ME, WHO CREATED ALLAH?
HAVE I BEEN CREATED MERELY FOR WORSHIP?
IF ALLAH HAS PREORDAINED MY DEEDS,
WHY SHOULD HE JUDGE ME?
WHY DID ALLAH CREATE EVIL?
WHAT ABOUT THOSE UNREACHED BY THE QUR'AN?
COULD MUHAMMAD BE THE AUTHOR OF THE QUR'AN?
WHY DOES THE DISBELIEVER GO TO HELL FOREVER?
DO WE REALLY HAVE A SOUL? ...ETC.

The purpose of compiling this book is to present to the English speaking public an instructive insight into some of the most basic doctrines and principles of Islamic belief in a manner that may be helpful in removing the doubts and misgivings raised in the sphere of religious belief in these modern, materialistic times in general & against Islam in particular.

Muslims have undoubtedly been effected by the modern world such that their identity has become indistinct, their values tarnished with secularism and their vision constricted to oppressively narrow horizons. This treatise is aimed at reasserting that identity, purifying those values and expanding those horizons.
